Except:

Amazing Girl did a swan dive into the darkness of that alley, and flew down to head level as she streaked at breakneck speed towards those two thugs. She was coming up from their left, with her left fist forward and the right pulled back. Just as she reached them, she cried out.

“Knuckle sandwiches for everyone!”

Their heads whipped around, looks of surprises warming her heart. Amazing Girl pounded her right fist into the first thug’s face. It was Trevor, and he went down as her fist continued straight into Dave’s face.

“Ouch, bet that hurt,” she said, immediately pulling up and then slowly dropping to stand between the two down thugs. She rubbed her right arm from wrist to shoulder. It was quite a jolt for her, as well. “Sleep tight, morons.”

Thankfully, none of the balloons filled with chloroform burst. Three of the balloons had rolled away, and Trevor still held onto one. Amazing Girl took the balloon from him, found the other three, and deposited them in a dumpster, before going to the door into the club.

The door was locked. She scowled, and then checked the two thugs' pockets. They had lots of keys, but none of them opened that door. After angrily throwing their keys down the alley, Amazing Girl grabbed the door knob and ripped the door open.

To say it was loud was an understatement.

"It's a heroine!" someone cried inside.

Amazing Girl charged into the dark hallway. Three men blocked her way. It was too dark to see if any of them were the thugs that captured the two super heroines.

"Get her!"

"Get this," she growled, and kicked the first man in the face. He fell back into the second, that she thrust kicked in the face over the unconscious man falling into him. "Two down, and one ass-wipe to go!"

The pigtailed vigilante leapt over them and traded punches with the third man. He was fast and strong, and all they did was manage to block or duck under each other's punches. Knowing she didn't have much time, Amazing Girl flew up and over him. At the same time, she brought her knee brutally up into his face. His grunt of pain, followed by his collapse, made her smile. Okay, it was a cruel little smile.
