And Then There Was Light L.L. Bluefeather

In this exceptional and exciting novel, LL Bluefeather takes her readers on a rollercoaster ride of intrigue, conspiracy, spiritual awarness, and heart stopping adventure. You will be drawn to Sara Trumen, whose exceptional spiritual gifts lead this remarkable woman as she tries to prevent the assignation of the President. Joining Sara on this journey is Doc, a retired chiropractor, dowser, neighbor, and friend; Sara's youngest son Zach (if I can't see, smell, taste or touch it - it doesn't exist) a former Marine with an unexpected past, who has a few surprises for his mother. Meet Luke whose introduction to Sara was telepathic; and Landry, her beloved Border Collie, with amazing intuitive abilities that add mystical dimensions to this unusual journey. As an award winning author, Sara Trumen's life changed the minute she opened the invitation to receive an honor for her latest book. Sara, whose spiritual gifts had always guided her, found she would be dependent on those gifts to keep her, as well as those she loves alive. Sara never dreamed when she left her adobe home in Taos that she would hold the key to life as we know it.
