i, geek: confessions of a geeky mind Joseph Dickerson

A collection of essays on all things geek - technology, Star Trek, Doctor Who, Dungeons and Dragons, and more!

From the introduction: A few years ago, this open geekness would have been shunned, and I would have been subject to random wedgies from strangers as I walked down the street. Well, no more. Now, geek is chic. Shows like The Big Bang Theory has allowed people like me to let our “geek flags fly” with pride, and all of a sudden we are the cool kids... mostly. The geeks have inherited the earth.

About the author: Joseph Dickerson is composed of blood, tissue and sinew in various proportions. The total value of the chemicals he is composed of is, at the time of this writing, $73.89.
