Dead in a Ditch (Vivienne Taylor Series Book 1) Heather Lynn Osting

Midwestern girl, Vivienne Taylor has never been considered "lucky"...and when she wakes up face down in the middle of nowhere, broken, beaten and unrecognizable, even to herself, she comes to realize that her estranged father's childhood warnings had now become her reality. Vivienne's tale will take you through a series of events that start off innocently with a wide-eyed girl looking for a fun weekend, but then unknowingly and without warrant finds herself in the clutches of evil beyond her young comprehension. This is a gritty story that will drag you into a dark world that is run by outlaw bikers who operate by a set of rules all of their own. Dangerous, ruthless and without remorse, they rape, they kill, they take...but how do you survive in the hands of men who have no respect for human life? How do you keep what is yours when everything you have is taken away? In reading Vivienne's story you will be allowed into the mind and heart of someone who was born into the arms of a man who didn't deserve to be a father, who survived a childhood most would like to forget, only to find herself twenty-one years old, and once more facing her unfortunate fate.
