Over the rainbow, under the moon, closer to Hollywood than to the Grim Reaper, and - once you've been there - always in your heart: That's the Desert Rose Condos retirement resort.

Life in the desert has never been more offbeat. The seniors at the Desert Rose have a certain zest for Friday night happy hour - which occurs every other night of the week too, including Wednesday bingo night. And why not? There's so much to discuss and plan. Like how to deal with unexpected relatives dropping by. And what to do when a film crew shows up to document life at the resort. When is it appropriate to display your talents once you discover you're a poet? Why do Betty's knitted pet clothes sell at the Thursday Farmer's Market sidewalk sale, and why can't anyone else think of something to sell? Where do you get fixings for a Christmas dinner on Christmas day when everything's closed?

It's challenging being a senior citizen at a desert community resort, but your friends at the Desert Rose show you how to do it with style. And who knows, maybe 13b is for sale again and you could move in yourself!
