A rose is more than a rose in these stunning interpretations of a beloved classic design! Presented here are original designs from 18 inventive quilters. The designs feature a variety of construction methods, embellishment ideas, and creative fabric selections. These imaginative quilters showcase their skills with a fresh take on the beloved Rose of Sharon traditional block pattern. Originality of design and excellence in execution are the hallmarks of these quilts. These talented contest winners and finalists take you through their design processes, helping you to visualize new possibilities for your own winning quilts. The Museum of the American Quilter s Society (MAQS) in Paducah, Kentucky, sponsors the yearly 'New Quilts from an Old Favorite' contest in its continuing mission to honor today's quilters.
