What Wifey Wants Sally Hollister

Four short stories by Sally Hollister, featuring her favourite subject, cheating wives. All different in tone, they still paint a vivid picture of what drives women into an adulterous relationship.

The first story tells of the boring life of married woman, Sandy. Husband, Ken, doesn't pay her very much attention and she feels she is suffocating in boredom till her friend, Geri, announces that she's taken a lover. Sandy, from a puritanical background is shocked but intrigued. Somehow this conversation between the friends leads to a bout of lesbian love between them and from there it is a small step to Sandy being shared with Geri's husband, Dave, and her lover, Jake.

For the second, Jenny's been cheating on husband, Bill, from the moment she got married, just about. He literally forced her into Roger's arms because he was having it off with Roger's wife. After that it was just a search for sex that was more exciting than the boring marital screwing that Bill gave her. With complete honesty she tells why she does it, why she loves it and what she expects from it. Window cleaners, delivery drivers and electricians have all enjoyed her and she says proudly that she has no regrets about her libidinous life.

Story three is a dialogue between husband and wife, Kate and George, as they lie in bed together. Kate's just been to visit Ted at George's instigation but what he didn't expect was that their friend would introduce his wife to anal sex. Now that she's no longer an anal virgin it seems only right that she gives some pooper love to her hubby as well.

The last story has Jackie who only cheats on husband, Tony, when they're on holiday. He beetles off to play golf and she seeks out partners to have sex with in their hotel. Here she tells of how she began her vacation vice, with Norwegian, Sven, who shows her what real love-making is all about. Even better Tony seems to sense something too and is turned on by it, so she gets a double dose of love action when she's been a bad girl.

Quality erotica from a mistress of the genre.
