The Local Resident Daniel J Bradshaw

Wonderville is a sleepy town. For the most part, people tend to keep to themselves. One day, a family passes through town and stops at the city park during a city-wide celebration. They talk about how wonderful the people are and what life must be like in the small town. They eventually decide to move in. They have their boxes unpacked just in time for the annual casserole bake off. Then everything changes. Somebody in town starts printing and delivering articles that mock the city newspaper. The mayor is furious and asks the new guy in town to launch a top secret investigation. The job would have been easy, but people in town do strange things that incriminate themselves. It's up to the new guy to find out who's responsible before the mayor takes matters into his own hands.
