What you and I and everybody need to understand is this that without the creator we don't exist but because we do and that is because the creator created us out of genuine love and passion. The creator is most compassionate and merciful. In that case isn't it our duty or shall i say where is our compassion, shouldn't we find out who the creator is? and by the way nothing belongs to us and we don't own anything? we really don't own anything? tick-tock, tick-tock, you are running out of time? do not die except in the condition of submission to THE CREATOR (GOD).
