Cassidy has been crushing on her new stepbrother Gabe ever since her mother married her newest husband. Cassidy was ready to coast through her last agonizing year of high school and be off to college in the fall; but things don't always go according to plan.

Cassidy doesn't know what to do with her feelings and is turned off by the playboy persona that Gabe exudes. Afraid of rejection and fearful of being judged for her thoughts about her stepbrother, Cassidy tries to fight her feelings. It's not until Cassidy sees the other side of Gabe does she reconsider what she wants to do to him.

Gabe is tired of ignoring the growing attraction between them, and he decides to finally make a move. The two can't fight off their feelings and give in to the sexual attraction. Only during sex and romance does Gabe show his animalistic side.
