An unbelievably believable story about the afterlife. A skeptic trying to reconcile what she knows and what she sees. A love story In 2004, Janis Heaphy Durham's husband, Max Besler, died of esophageal cancer at age fifty-six. While coping with her grief, Heaphy Durham began encountering phenomena unlike anything she had ever experienced: lights flickering, doors opening, clocks stopping at the exact time Max died. But then something happened that changed her life forever: a powdery handprint appeared on her bathroom mirror on the first anniversary of Max's death. Clearly, something otherworldly was happening. Heaphy Durham launched a full-blown investigation, interviewing scientists and spiritual practitioners in a journey that would utterly transform her worldview. Skeptical at first, she soon discovered the fragility of the veil between this world and the next-and how the two are bridged by love.
