Katie Archer is a travel writer who just returned home to the comforts of her grandmother's apple pie and her hometown St. Augustine, Florida. She's looking for a break from traveling so she decides to write a feature article about her grandmother's antique shop when she discovers she has inherited the gift of touching objects and seeing into the lives of its past owners. Passed from generation to generation to the women in her family, the gift sometimes skips a generation and often doesn't develop until later in life. Katie's grandmother knows more about her new gift than she's ever let on and it will be up to Katie to decide how to use her new power.
