Taken by Her King!

Rose, an innocent girl who scrapes by making clothing for those more fortunate than her, is out early one morn for a stroll, when she almost gets run down by an expensive-looking carriage.

When it stops and the occupants invite her inside, she thinks there must be some mistake.

But the only mistake is that the two kings inside the carriage thought she turned not thread into cloth, but fantasy into reality.

Rose tells them she's not that kind of girl, but when the kings find out she's not wearing ANYTHING under that thin dress of hers, they simply can't control themselves, and take the inexperienced girl hard and unprotected, right there in the carriage, then invite their men to join in.

And that's all BEFORE before even getting back to the castle, where the king will present her to his entire court!
