Tratado Sobre la Tolerancia (Spanish Edition) Voltaire

El Tratado sobre la tolerancia es una obra que François-Marie Arouet, más conocido como Voltaire, escribió y publicó en 1763 en el Castillo de Ferney-Voltaire, tras la muerte del hugonote Jean Calas, injustamente acusado y ejecutado el 10 de marzo de 1762 por el asesinato de su hijo, que se había convertido al catolicismo. Voltaire defendió la inocencia de Jean y consideró que se trataba de un suicidio. En esta obra, Voltaire invita a la tolerancia entre las religiones, atacando con dureza el fanatismo religioso, especialmente el de los jesuitas. El filósofo francés había estudiado en su juventud en una escuela de esta orden, donde destacó por su ingenio y aplicación. Voltaire defiende en este Tratado la libertad de cultos, y critica las guerras religiosas como una práctica violenta y bárbara. Nadie debe morir por sus ideas, y el fanatismo es una enfermedad que debe combatirse y extirparse.
