2012 Texas Workbook: Essays, Multistate Performance Test, Simulated Practice Exam

30 actual essay prompts, administered by the Texas Board of Law Examiners in recent years, followed by Kaplan-created sample essay outlines and model answers. The essays vary in length and in format as actual bar exam essays do. Each outline, followed by a sample essay, is designed to replicate the process you will want to follow on test day: reviewing the prompt, issue spotting, and then organizing your thoughts into an outline before you start writing. The best part of this section is of course the essay outlines and model answers. The essay outlines teach you how to break down issues into its basic elements and write them out in the IRAC format.
