The counselor, the family and the married couples interact on the basis of one-on-one, and session-by-session arrangement. The purpose of this non-longitudinal descriptive research study was to discover which essentials and issues have critical effects in family and marriage counseling delivery systems in the society. The investigative instrument used to acquire the data indicated the actual use of assessment instruments by the responding families and married couples where the importance of the biblical principles techniques and methodology was evident. The purpose of this research was to use descriptive research to discover, state, and examine the essentials and critical issues that plague family and married couple's relationships as a concern for providers of biblical counseling utilizing the biblical counseling application design.
