How to Find the Best Model Agency Kim Luret

Former high fashion model turned model scout Kim Luret is back with another book in the Kim Luret Modeling Success Series. The latest title is called How to Find the Best Model Agency, and it's chock full of practical advice for aspiring models and their parents and other supporters.

The book reveals the insider tactics models need to know in order to sign with the best model agency for them. Ms. Luret is no stranger to the world of high stakes international modeling, and she lays out in great detail exactly how models can research, approach and impress model agents in order to sign with the very best agency possible.

In the course of helping models put together a winning game plan to find the best agency for them, Ms. Luret also offers powerful advice on a range of related topics, including:

- Exactly how to conduct yourself during an interview with a modeling agency
- How to dress for interviews
- The exact kinds of photos to send to an agency you would like to work with
- Whether or not you should attend a modeling school—and how the wrong school can actually hurt your career
- How to know whether a big name agency or smaller boutique agency is best for advancing your career
- The role of modeling conventions, including the high costs versus possible career benefits
- What to do when your modeling agency is no longer the best one for you

Ms. Luret has enjoyed a long time international fashion career, both as a high fashion model working with many of the worlds top designers, as well as an accomplished model scout who has helped launch numerous modeling sensations.

Besides offering plenty of actionable advice models can use to advance their careers, the book contains many interesting anecdotes taken from the author's long career in fashion. Her story of discovering and helping launch the modeling career of Bond Girl Bérénice Marlohe (appearing in the latest Bond film Skyfall with Daniel Craig) is just one example, and her candid behind the scenes looks at the world of modeling will make the book an especially enjoyable read for fans of fashion.
