Jacob, having been cast out of the only life he has ever known, embarks on a journey to the land of his mother's ancestry. It is an arduous journey filled with danger and intrigue, in which Jacob is forced to make a choice to remain consistent to his calling. It is an epic story of love and hate, trickery and deceit, and ultimately the triumph of good over evil.

Jacob's Hope is the promise of God to make his descendants into a great nation. God not only proves faithful to Jacob, but has remained faithful to the nation of Israel even today. This is Jacob's story.
