Pat Metheny: The Way Up Is White Ken Trethewey

Pat Metheny is one of the most popular and highly acclaimed jazz musicians of the present day and is regarded as a master of electric guitar and jazz composition. Pat's early breaks came under the leadership of Gary Burton, with whom he has periodically continued to perform. However, since 1977, assisted by his musical partners Lyle Mays and Steve Rodby, Pat has developed his own unique brand of jazz-fusion through his band, Pat Metheny Group, now the foremost jazz group in the world. As if that were not enough, Metheny has maintained a parallel career as a mainstream jazz artist and has played and recorded with most of the top jazz musicians. A consummate artist, Pat is noted for his dedication to music and his desire to add to the lasting legacy of jazz. As a result, he has been rewarded with more Grammys than any other jazz musician. This book is now in an updated second edition (2012) and focuses on Pat's unique achievements through an examination of his recorded works.
