"Maureen, I have a proposal for you...."

A woman sure doesn't hear those words every day, especially from such a tall, dark and handsome hunk! But Matthew Vining was asking me to be his imaginary bride—so he could write about the perfect European honeymoon. Of course, that meant our "relationship" had to stay strictly platonic. My grandma once predicted I would meet the man of my dreams abroad. Would that promise come true even if I was pretending to be married to someone else? Soon I didn't care—because the idea of having a real honeymoon with devilishly sexy Matt was starting to sound better and better....
