Revenge on the River (A Sister Blandine Mystery) Philippe Bouin

On a snowy night on the outskirts of Lyon, France, the son of the Somarec chairman is brutally attacked. The assailant leaves only one clue—a cryptic message: “Najuno, remember.” A reminder of an environmental tragedy Somarec was responsible for twenty years earlier in Chile...

When the police get involved, a string of burglaries, more attacks, and vicious murders all lead back to Somarec. Clues pile up, one mystery becomes many, and nothing is as it first appears. Sister Blandine, a former detective who left police work behind to enter the convent, is on the case. With millions of dollars on the line and the threat of more deaths, Blandine uses her divine skills of deduction to peel away the layers of mystery.

Valentin Gonzalez:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or make summary for some book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's internal or real their interest. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring along with can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Revenge on the River (A Sister Blandine Mystery) can make you feel more interested to read.
