There Is No Death Sarah LaNelle Menet

Sarah Menet was pronounced dead but she did not die. Her near death experience (NDE) is one of the most extensive ever recorded. Sarah not only visited the beautiful spirit world, describing the people, their dress, activities, and buildings; but she also visited what could be called "hell" and describes the torment of those committed to that terrible place. She also received answers to many questions such as:

Why are terrible things allowed to happen to good people?

Is there a purpose to life here on earth?

Why is it important to treat others with respect?

Is it important to be good?

Is there such a things as deja vu?

Is there such a thing as reincarnation?

What are some of the difficulties that may lie ahead for us on earth?

Sarah was also shown several future events. She saw tall buildings in New York collapsing a midst smoke and debris and people running years before 9/11. This was the beginning of other calamities which were to include a great plague suddenly striking several cities in the United States, a nuclear war and other devastating events.

So begins the story of Sarah's extraordinary experience.
