Searching for meaning? Looking for something more from life? Feeling an itch to make a difference? One Hundred Days of Giving is filled with inspiration, hope and ideas for adding more meaning to your life and to the lives of others. Seeking motivation and inspiration to carry on during a low point in life, Ms. Stutzman shares her journey through an exercise in giving for one hundred days. Thought-provoking, moving and inspirational opportunities presented themselves during the exercise. Join Kathy as she experiences challenges, thoughtfulness and a reason to move forward through the difficult days. Included in this book is a daily giving journal for you, the reader to use as you embark on your own journey of giving. The impact of the exercise will be equal to your own efforts, the gifts do not require any financial stake and the only requirement is that you be willing to receive. Get ready to step outside of yourself, be open to the myriad of giving opportunities that present themselves and prepare to receive more than you can imagine. Jump into the giving experience, write about it and share yourself with others – you have so much to give!
