Why are Christians fleeing Iraq? How are ISIS, and other militant organizations able to threaten the world? Why is this just the beginning of the end? The final confrontation. What we see happening in the Middle East today is a reality John Paul II warned of. The final battle between the Gospel and the anti-Gospel. Now as Pope John Paul II becomes a saint discover the link between the former Pontiff, Saint Faustina, and what is happening in our world today. This book looks at the late Pontiff's devotion to Saint Faustina and the messages she received about the end times. Saint John Paul was so convinced about the authenticity of these messages he not only made her the first Saint of this Millennium, but also went to his final resting place with his last homily on the subject of her messages buried in his casket. Few people know this story, and those who do have not realized the full implications. Here in this eye opening book, the pieces of this mystical puzzle have been placed together. Wherever you might be in your own journey of faith, the facts presented here make this book a must read for all who wonder where our world is heading. This book is an updated version of previously published Blessed Pope John Paul II and The Diary of Saint Faustina.
