The Cost of Kindness. A novel with a contemporary theme. On the spur of the moment, Bruce Cameron offers a lift to a stranger. She is Emily, ten years his junior, and a woman with a load of problems. Bruce misses the meeting he had been travelling to and instead spends time with Emily. He lies to Sue his wife, and to Hugh his boss about his movements that day and the other times he visits Emily as he tries to help her with her problems. Her life is falling apart like the remote cottage she is living in. Her husband has left her and her financial situation is precarious. The deception continues. Bruce becomes more and more attracted to Emily and then he meets her husband. Jonathan is a man who is desperate and dangerous. Bruce is about to discover the cost of his kindness towards Emily.
