The Queen's Seeker: Part One: Storm and Stone (The Infernal Thrones Book 1) Thomas Baker

In a world caught between its past and its future, tensions entwine Men and Elves; and threaten to bring the civilisations to their knees. In The Infernal Thrones, Thomas Baker introduces readers to a mythical world as vivid and complex as our own. A staggering tapestry of vengeance, betrayal, adventure, war and lust drip from pages written with elegant set pieces and lyrical dialogue. This first chapter in a debut volume is sure to whet the appetite of fantasy fans everywhere with colossal and dramatic storytelling.

* * *

The shadows are moving again.
A king is dead,
A lost lord is rising,
The price for justice: steel and blood.

The Miraikalúth, Ouroboros Curse, reveals Saera Greyscar as the champion of the goddess Eir, and it is her duty to save the realms of men from the Shadows That Ride.

Her brother and the late king's murderer, Joseth, has spent six years sequestered in the remote mountain fortresses of V?rðrfell, following the strict discipline of the First Order.

But a terrible secret at the heart of the acolytes that defend Ardna is about to unfold and with it an ancient evil will rise again.

To the east, Valyion Vorithane endures the gradual demise of his beloved sister and the overwhelming urge to seek revenge for his ancestor's fallen empire. But before he can grant his last vow, Valyion must survive the Dances of Death, brutal gladiatorial games with a prize of thirty thousand Ondragon soldiers.

An army that will bring him closer to holding the thrones of the west.

In southern Rassai, Wynona Myruin is discovering the weight of her heritage and is on a path to destruction as she seeks her mother's murderer.

She will stop at nothing—and risk everything—to see that justice is served.

The realm of men is rapidly shrinking beneath their feet, plot breeds liars and brother fights against brother as the shadows ride to steal the dawn.
