(Formerly published as George Mueller: A Father to the Fatherless.) When people weren't looking, he stole money from them. He stole from his father, he stole from his teacher, he even stole from the pastor of his church. And he was studying to be a pastor himself.

But one day George Mueller found out that the God he had been pretending to worship was real. His life changed completely. Now, instead of taking from others, he wanted to give to help others. And give . . . and give . . . and give. By the end of his life, George Mueller had given over a million dollars.

But where did he get it? He didn't steal the money. He didn't work for the money. He didn't ask anyone for the money. That is, he didn't ask any people. He asked God. And God gave . . . and gave . . . and gave.

George Mueller used that money to provide homes for over ten thousand orphans in his lifetime. All of England was changed because of this one man.
