Rebecca Parker is alone again. But she's free and open to all kinds of ideas. When she takes up Derek Beck on his offer of dinner, she realizes that his idea of fantasy is different than hers. She also realizes that he is a very powerful man with lots of connections.

She wants to be with him, but she still has one more fantasy she needs to experience. She wants to be with a group of men. Derek lets her know that he will be the one who will set it up. One final night of debauchery and then she can try to settle down with him.

Will Rebecca give into her fantasy or make Derek part of her reality? She might have to choose, or she might just be taken.

This 9000 word book is the fourth part in the Lights Series.
