Vacation ... priceless. Photos ... worthless. Journal ... senseless. Is your picture truly worth a thousand words? If you imagine your photos can tell your entire travel story, you're either one hell of a photographer or truly misguided. Words can enhance the tale behind the pictures, and pictures can add life to your words. Yet, too often we divide them into distinct disciplines. Photography and writing go hand in hand to paint a more vivid travel story. Whether you aspire to have your work published or simply want to make better personal presentations of your adventures, this book shows you how to elevate snapshots into photographic art and captions into literary commentary.
