The Secret of the Virgin Queen: Cold Case - Reopened (Historical True Crime) Mark Garber

After receiving hundreds of requests for another book, the author of the best seller Cold Case Reopened: The Princes in the Tower has finally put pen to paper again.

While researching another historical crime, ex police detective Mark Garber was struck by an old country legend relating to Elizabeth I, the daughter of Henry VIII and the last Tudor monarch.

This book details Mark's investigation into the legend.

It takes him through a nineteenth century publication that was authored by a very famous figure in literature. As Mark investigates that theory, he discovers shocking details that the original author had completely misinterpreted that leads to a conclusion that historians seemed to have glossed over for centuries.
