Little Raccoon's New Day Judith K. Campbell

The story, designed for beginning readers, is about a little raccoon, who lives in the forest among other more experienced and wiser animals. The rain begins to fall, and the raccoon is so sad that he wants to run away. The other animals try to explain that the weather and situation will pass. Then the rain stops and a rainbow appears. The raccoon is thrilled and delighted and his mood changes from disappointment and despair to happiness. The message is that gifts can come from life's challenges. A portion of the proceeds will go to the Pajama Program for new books and pajamas for children in need.
