A Victorian debutante finds herself escaping danger, and she flees to the only person she can trust -- the handsome and charming fiance of her murdered cousin.

Lady Sarah Hughes, a recent debutante of 1890 London and was always in the shadow of her beautiful debutante cousin. After the tragic gruesome murder of her cousin, Sarah is forced into the limelight, and this time she cringes at the attention. Sarah can't escape her fate in becoming the killer's next target, especially when the killer is a mystery to everyone!

The only person who Sarah could trust her life to is the one person who was her secret untouchable romantic crush, Ross Hamilton. Ross desired one thing - justice for his fiance's killer - whether that meant life or death or him. The one thing he didn't count on was falling for his late fiance's cousin, Sarah, who desperately needed his safety.

Does Ross give up his own desires to give into his heart's tugging?

Does Lady Sarah finally find the courage to share her undying love before it's too late?
