Why is it that no matter how much tidying is done each day, there is a never-ending source of clutter waiting to overtake every home? You can learn why your home is plagued with clutter, and what you can do to drive it completely from your life once and for all.

The Life-Changing Magic of Tidying Up is your personal guide to defeating clutter and taking control of your home. What many people don't realize is that clutter is the result of too many possessions, and that most of these possessions are completely unnecessary. By identifying the disposable things and organizing those that remain into perfect order, you can get rid of clutter and lead a tidier, happier life.

You will learn:

- How to differentiate between possessions with meaning and those which are disposable
- Why defeating clutter with the KonMari method can give you power over the rest of your life

· How you can break your possessions into easy to manage categories in order to get organized.
