Marla: Learning the Rules Leandra Summers

Pretty Marla finds herself vulnerable and alone when her passport is stolen whilst traveling to help her recover from her brother's death. She finds herself placed by social tourist services with loving wives Skylar and Emma. Skylar and Emma are as serious about helping Marla get her life back on track as they are about caring for each other. The spunky Marla finds it hard to accept their loving, yet firm guidance, not to mention totally disbelieving that they would carry out any consequences for not following the house rules.

This is a short story that focuses on loving domestic discipline relationships between women. It includes adult spanking and has slightly sexual undertones. If such material offends you please do not buy the book.
