The Sorcerer's Shadow: Volume One (Volume 1) The Sorcerer's Guild

The first edition of The Sorcerer's Shadow contains both full articles written by individual members of the guild, as well as essays where the combined knowledge of the guild has been gathered together and compiled into a single essay. Neither this book nor the guild itself is designed to lead you the reader down any one magical or spiritual path but rather to help facilitate a deeper understanding of magic within the awareness of the individual sorcerer so that they may come to a personal understanding of spirituality and the true nature of knowledge, freedom, and power. This one book covers all of the basics to enter the world of spell craft, complete with demonic tutor installed for easy learning. Within these pages you will find discussion on such basics as how to cast a magic circle and enter into sorcerous trance known as gnosis. From there we will progress into the basics of creating personalized magical symbols known as sigils. We will also cover how to cast curses and issues on karma. Continuing on we will also be discussing how to survive death and have lucid dreams. Love spells will also be discussed as will potential of the truth behind shape shifting. More volumes to come all proceeds will go to The Sorcerer's Guild and purchase of a Guild Headquarters.
