Lord Branimir Rongo of Ansgar, later known as Brother Branimir, is one of few characters mentioned in all three parts of The Windflower Saga trilogy without being a major character in any of them. What brought the son of a King and a High Chief to a rugged island far from home, wearing only the robe of a lay brother and searching for any survivors of a cruel and unjust exile? This is the story of a young man born to nobility who chose a life of simplicity, service, and struggle. This is a story of love in its truest sense.
