Golden Nuggets from the Streams of Life Herb Dean

Does God still speak today? Does He intimately involve Himself in the affairs of our lives? If we truly believe that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love Him and are called according to His purpose, we find God in everything that happens in our lives. In the daily walk of our lives God is revealing Himself to us in creative ways. Many of life's experiences become tools which teach us about God's character, His ways, and His love for us. This book is a compilation of real life experiences where God revealed Himself to this author. You will find these stories to be encouraging, convicting, and spiritually challenging. Great teaching and preaching is important in our spiritual development, but encountering God in a personal situation can have a greater impact on our lives than many sermons. Personal experience becomes part of our life message and carries the most weight in sharing with others. Herb Dean has found that some of God's choicest nuggets are to be found in the streams of our lives.
