ONE L Easton Press Scott Turow

This is a leather bound Easton Press edition of "One L" by Scott Turow, also signed by the author, and includes a certificate of authenticity. One L is a chronological account of Turow's first year at Harvard. His tone is first anxious, then exhausted and then cynical, much like in a private's letters home from boot camp. Like the majority of 1Ls around the country, both then and now, Turow studies the standard docket of Civil Procedure, Torts, Contracts, and the like. During the early weeks he is overcome with intellectual excitement, in spite of the nerves he feels as a subject of the Socratic method, wielded most sharply by his Contracts professor, Rudolph Perini. Perini is simultaneously brilliant and cruel; the anticipation of his in-class interrogations throws many students-Turow included-into a daily panic. Nevertheless, Turow harbors an unabashed admiration of both the man and the method as his curious mind stretches to new lengths by the intricacies of the law.
